Speakers' biographies

Pieter Boot

Pieter Boot is head of the department of Climate, Air and Energy at PBL Netherlands Environmental Assessment Agency. Previously, he held positions at the International Energy Agency as Director Sustainable Energy Policy and Technology, at the ministry of Economic Affairs as deputy Director-General Energy and at other ministries in the Netherlands. He has a PhD in Economics.

Frédéric Hoogveld

Frédéric is the Head of Investment specialists within Amundi's Index and Smart Beta team. Frédéric joined Amundi in 2011. Prior to that, Frédéric worked as an equity quant analyst for a number of asset managers, designing long-only and long-short factor investment strategies. He started his career as a consultant for Factset Research Systems. Frederic holds a Master's degree in Engineering from Ecole Centrale de Nantes as well as a Master's degree in Corporate Finance from La Sorbonne University and a MBA from INSEAD. Frederic is both a CFA and a CAIA Charterholder.

Joris Laseur

Joris Laseur is product manager for Sustainalytics' Carbon Team. Joris joined Sustainalytics in 2009, initially as account manager for Dutch institutional investors. Seeking to leverage his past experience with respect to carbon emissions accounting and reporting, he joined the Carbon Team in 2015. Sustainalytics offers a range of carbon-related solutions for institutional investors, ranging from carbon emissions data provision and analysis to exposure research with respect to thermal coal, oil sands, Arctic exploration, renewable energy, conventional oil and gas, as well as stranded assets risk.

Joris holds a Master's degree in International Economics & Business from University of Groningen, the Netherlands.

Angélique Laskewitz

Angélique Laskewitz is managing director of VBDO, the Investors Association for Sustainable Development in the Netherlands as of March 1st. Since 1991, Angélique Laskewitz held various change management, HR and governance-related management and consulting roles at financial services providers such as RVS, AMEV, Fortis Bank Netherlands, BNP Paribas Fortis and ASR Netherlands. As a sideline she started her own consultancy practice ALMC in 2002.

Angélique Laskewitz studied Dutch law at the University of Groningen.
