Biography

Judeh Jamal

Judeh Jamal started his career as volunteer with a grass-rooted non-governmental organisation (Palestinian Agricultural Relief Committees – PARC) supporting farmers in the Jordan Valley in the West Bank and Gaza strip. During the past 33 years, he managed to play a critical role in developing the Palestinian agriculture sector mainly through advocating on the national and international levels.

Judeh Jamal worked as Acting country Director with Qatar Charity, which is one of the main International NGO's working in 18 different countries in the areas of humanitarian assistances and sustainable development.

He supervised the Palestinian Reform and Development Plan 2008-2010 working with the Palestinian ministry of planning and Ministry of Finance.

Judeh Jamal is now working as a freelance and CEO for DAMAN for SME's a not for profit organisation aiming to sustain and support the MFI's sector to continue their activities in the marginalized, poor communities in Palestine.

Judeh Jamal has EMBA and BSc in Agriculture.
